Please answer the following questions; you may type or write on another sheet of paper and attach to this application. Please do not copy and paste into another word document. It is recommended to print, complete, scan and email this application to vsucr1@gmail.com.

Incomplete applications will not be accepted, nor considered.

1. Besides College Republicans, what other student organizations are you a part of? Please include any positions, awards, or special recognitions you may hold.

2. As a director, you will have a specific job and will be a vital asset to the VSUCRs chapter, the Georgia Association of College Republicans, and the College Republican National Committee. How can you work with the Executive Board to promote the Republican Party in Valdosta, the Southern Region, and the State of Georgia?

3. College Republicans are considered the millennial voice of the Republican Party. We are looked on for being the leaders of tomorrow. There are a lot of skills that we have that other members of the GOP do not. What skills do you possess that will benefit you to do your job? What can you do to promote the youth vote for the Republican Party?

4. Why do you want to be hold a directorship in our organization? Please be as detailed as possible.

5. When it comes to a specific issue or policy, we might hold different views. Our organization is open to differing opinions, but in most situations, we will have to take the opinion of the party or the parent organizations (GACR and CRNC). We operate on the party system, and often, we will have to operate in a view the group or the university will not completely agree with. Will this hinder you from doing your job? Yes, or No, and please explain. Give as much detail as possible. This is the most important question as teamwork and working with others on differing opinions is important to our operations.

6. Would you be able to attend weekend retreats, meetings, and conventions, conference calls and represent the VSUCRs to the best of your ability? Please initial next to the response you choose.

_____ YES

_____ NO

7. PUBLICITY DIRECTOR APPLICANTS ONLY:

Apart of the job requires you to be timely, follow instructions, and take criticism. You are our “Press Secretary,” and you will be responsible for social media accounts, newsletters, and responding to correspondence. Trust, honesty, and discretion are important in holding this job. Moreover, time is always of the essence when it comes to posting, tweeting, and responding to something of interest. You must be available to the Chairman and/or any member of the Executive Board when needed, and you must be proactive in this position (posting, tweeting, sharing, etc.). Changing passwords, failing to communicate effectively and lack thereof will deem you unfit for the job, and you will be removed and replaced. You are being held to one of the highest standards as a part of the Executive Board.

If you can complete the outlined tasks and expectations above, please initial below:

ALL CANDIDATES: Please continue to Page 5 to sign the attached statement

Please read and sign the following statement.

I, _____ (full name), understand that this application does not guarantee a directorship in the Valdosta State University College Republicans (VSUCRs), but allows the Chairman and Executive Board to consider me for the position in which I desire. This application can become null and void with or without notice from the Chairman and Executive Board, and I have read all the requirements for membership and responsibilities of my intended positions as noted in Article III and Article IV, Section 4, of the VSUCRs Constitution. I understand that it is the Chairman who has the power of appointment of directorships, but receives advice and consent from at least two officers of the Executive Board. I have been truthful and forthcoming with all of my responses above, and that any fabricated response will forfeit my chances of holding a directorship in this organization (Please note: by writing your name above, you are under oath, and held to your signature). If you are confirmed, you will be a voting member on the Executive Board.
